LOOK AT THE PHOTO AND READ THE TEXT. WHAT DOES THE PHOTO SHOW?

Summerhill School in England is a private school, and it's very different from most other schools. There is a timetable, but students don't have to go to the lessons. They sometimes play football instead. There is a meeting every week for all the children and teachers at the school, and they vote to decide the school rules there. The teachers and students all have to follow the rules. Does the head teacher have to follow the rules? Yes, she does.
