MEG BURTON HAS AN UNUSUAL JOB. SHE'S A PARTY PLANNER – SHE ORGANIZES PARTIES FOR FAMOUS PEOPLE. OUR REPORTER, JENNY LANE INTERVIEWED MEG.

Jenny: What do you do in your job, Meg?

Meg: I organise parties – it's as simple that. It takes a lot of time to organise a big party, and famous people often haven't got much time, so I do it for them.

Jenny: What kinds of parties do people want?

Meg: oh, anything and everything. I can organise a party on any theme – for example, I can organise a "Hawaii" party with guitars, palm trees, parrots, a historical party in a castle, an "India" party with elephants, or Winter party with ice and snow and skating even in August!

Jenny: What are doing at the moment?

Meg: I'm planning a party for a famous pop star. It's her 30th birthday this month and she's having a party at her house in London. She wants a 'Red' party – I'm organising red rooms, a red dress and shoes for her, red food and drink – even the grand piano is red!

Jenny: Who is this famous person?

Meg: Sorry, I can't tell you!

Jenny: Do you enjoy your job?

Meg: I love it. I have to work very hard and very fast, and there are always problems. But it's never boring.

Jenny: and do you like going to parties yourself?

Meg: no, not really, I prefer to go out with a few close friends. It's much more relaxing!
